

Justice Steven Majiedt
Justice of the Constitutional Court

Adv Dinkie Portia Dube
Deputy Public Protector
of South Africa

Dr Tshepo Moloji
Head of Historical Studies
University of Johannesburg

Featured voices

DEBATE & DISCUSSION

Protesters flee as police open fire during the Sharpeville Massacre on 21 March 1960, when a crowd gathered outside the Sharpeville police station to protest South Africa's pass laws. ©MuseuMAfrica

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY DEBATE

When justice and human rights collide, what matters most?

A bold Human Rights Day gathering with the Apartheid Museum, Constitution Hill, and Lighting The Future Foundation.

A live schools debate on: The pursuit of truth often undermines justice.

With responses from constitutional experts and academics, and an open audience dialogue, we look forward to an intergenerational exchange.

-  21 March 2026
-  9:00 am – 3:00 pm
-  Apartheid Museum
-  RSVP: 12 March 2026
info@apartheidmuseum.org

Light refreshments will be served.

APARTHEIDMUSEUM

Learn from the past. Change the future.